

A2012-59

This letter was mailed to you on Nov. 2, 2011 regarding the closure of the New Cambria, Kansas post office. It was returned to Mr. Brown on Dec. 12, 2011 saying it could not be delivered. 1 Month and 8 days after he first mailed it, he receives it back.....how can this be? We would certainly ask that it be put with the mail concerning this subject.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

10/20/11

Based on the final decision to close the New Cambria Post Office, which was posted on the bulletin board on 10/17/11, you the customers have 30 days to appeal this decision to:

POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION
901 NEW YORK AVE. NORTHWEST
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20268-0001

This is who you must contact to appeal the decision and you have 30 days from 10/17/11.

To whom it may <sup>concern</sup> Wed NOV. 2 - 2011

I appeal for the sake of the our common unity at least keep it the way or about the way it is now. I'm sure you can find away to keep it about the way it is now. I could write a lot more but I think these few words tell how I & the people of N. C. feel about it. We pray that you can keep it about the way it is now.

This family has had a box here since the early 1900's & for what it's worth worked the mail sacks from the trains to the P.O. & back for many years.

Sincerely Ray Brown of R.R. Box 83
& Thank you New Cambria
